Rev. Principal Smythe,
Wesleyan Theological College,
Montreal.

My dear Principal Smythe:

It is very kind of you to ask me to address your Convocation on Tuesday evening, April 27th, and I should gladly do so were it not that on Sunday I have to give the Baccalaureate address at Queen's, and at that time of the year I cannot afford either to be away for the two days or to make a second trip within such a short time. I hope, however, to be able to go for you on some future occasion.

I was sorry that I was not here when you were with us last autumn. With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
